

Julian J. Nexsen is a founding partner of Nexsen Pruet, LLC.

Mr. Nexsen was a first honor graduate of his class at the University of South Carolina School of Law and has been recognized repeatedly throughout his career. He earned the law school's Compleat Lawyer Award for outstanding professional and civic achievement, and he is also a member of Phi Beta Kappa and is listed in Best Lawyers in America. Recently, the Bar Foundation passed a resolution recognizing him for a lifetime pledge of support on behalf of his efforts to promote justice and enhance the legal profession.

Mr. Nexsen is a past president of the Richland County Bar Association and the SC Bar Foundation. Additionally, he served as a member of the Board of Governors of the SC Bar, the Legislative Committee for the Revision of the Corporation Code and the Bar's House of Delegates. He is also a Fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel and the American Bar Foundation; a member of the American Law Institute, the South Carolina Law Institute, and the USC Law School Partnership Board; and a permanent member of the Judicial Conference of the Fourth Judicial Circuit.

Over the years, Mr. Nexsen has contributed significantly to his country and to his local community. As a Lieutenant in the US Army Infantry, Mr. Nexsen served in France and Germany in WWII from 1942-1946. In 1951, he returned to service as a Captain JAGC in Korea. Mr. Nexsen has received numerous medals for his service including the Combat Infantry Badge and the Bronze Star with Oak Leaf Cluster.

As a citizen of Columbia, SC, Mr. Nexsen is a former chairman of the Board of Trustees of Providence Hospital, a former trustee of the Providence Foundation and a former trustee of the Sisters of Charity of St. Augustine Health System. Currently, he serves on the Board of Trustees of the Sisters of Charity of St. Augustine Ministries Development Corporation. In addition, Mr. Nexsen has served as chairman of the Board of Deacons and an elder of Eastminster Presbyterian Church, and as a trustee of Congaree Presbytery. He presently is a member of Trinity Presbytery Council.